TO THE REPUBLICANS OF THE THIRD DISTRICT.

The Republicans of the Third Congressional District, will please write me at Wilmington, N. C., and give me a full account of all frauds committed by the Democrats during the last election, giving names of county, precinct, and of poll holders, also names of persons prevented from voting and the reasons for it, whether or not the registars were at their post of duty before the election; in fact I want a full history of all frauds or irregularities of every description, that took place during the election on Tuesday the 21 of November 1880.

O. H. BLOCKER,
Chairman District Republican Committee, at Wilmington N. C.

The legislature has been asked by Senator Scott to investigate the outrageous conduct of the penitentiary officials in their treatment of convicts, and we hope the matter will be at once attended to.

Will the Democratic legislature dare to pass Senator Scott's resolutions investigating the Western N. C. Railroad sale? Many people, regardless of party, believe that corrupt means were used to effect the sale, therefore the matter ought to be investigated.

It is remarked by the southern Democrats that if the negroes will "eschew" politics, all will be serene, and the solid south will march peacefully to prosperity. Suppose the negroes consent, what is to be done with the thirty-five seats in Congress to which they are entitled? Will the south consent to "eschew" them? or will it continue to steal them?—Exchange.

The house which Davy Crockett once lived in at Lawrenceburg, Tenn., is still standing, and divers persons in the neighborhood possess legal documents written out by his own hand as Justice of the peace. He had a mill near the house, but, it is said, went off hunting and electioneering while his wife took care of the grinding. Mrs. Crockett was a woman of great strength, and could handle sacks of grain with ease.

Hon. John Sherman, America's greatest living financier and statesman, goes from the Senate to the Treasury Department, and after four years of the most faithful and brilliant service ever rendered to the United States, returns to the Senate as the unanimous choice of the Republicans of the great state of Ohio. What a compliment the most of people would, very naturally say to Mr. Sherman, but that is not the case. Mr. Sherman does his state a great compliment to serve it. Ohio has many great men, but we do the other great men no injustice to say that Mr. Sherman is their equal if not the superior of any of them.

SENATORIAL HONORS.

Hon. John Sherman has been unanimously nominated for the Senate from Ohio, in place of Allan G. Thurman.

Hon. Thomas C. Platt has been, after a very hard fight, nominated in the Republican caucus at Albany, as the successor of Senator Kenan.

Gen. Jas. R. Hawley has been selected as the Representative from Connecticut in place of Senator Eaton.

Gen. Harrison will succeed Senator McDonald from Indiana.

Gen. Miller will succeed Gov. Booth as Senator from California.

Eugene Hale, one of Maine's handsomest and most eloquent sons, will succeed that faithful, good man, Senator Hamlin.

O. D. Conger, the ever faithful friend of southern Republicans, will succeed the late Senator Chandler of Michigan.

H. W. Oliver is likely to succeed Senator Wallace of Pennsylvania.

The National Board of Underwriters has offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the incendiary or incendiaries who started the fire at Lauriaburg a few weeks ago.

Day's length ten hours and one minute.

Mr. Vanderbilt Adds to the Deems Fund.

The Rev. Charles F. Deems, of this city, has forwarded to President Battle, of the University of North Carolina, a check for $10,000 contributed by Mr. William H. Vanderbilt to the Deems fund, established by Dr. Deems for the aid of indigent students of that university. Mr. Deems writes: "When I began to make my little donations toward building up that fund, my trust was that some friends might be found in North Carolina who, after I am dead, would, for old love's sake, make it up to a few thousand dollars, but now my large-hearted friend, from whom I have never solicited anything, steps in and makes it quite as large as I had hoped it might grow in a quarter of a century. So very little was I able to give that I requested to have the claims of the sons of ministers of the Gospel preferred. Now help all applicants as rapidly as needed, being careful to observe that we desire to help, not carry. I am satisfied that nothing is gained by putting boys through a college like grist through a mill. The right kind of young man will satisfy you that he will ultimately be able to return the sum borrowed, and will find friends to stand for him."

The Choice of a King by the Animals—A Fable.

The animals were once about to choose a king. Some were in favor of the lion and some of the tiger. While they were considering the matter the squash-bug cried out that he had a letter, written by the lion, in which the lion said the pasturage of the deer and oxen ought to be given to the swine and skunks. The squash-bug gave the letter to certain wolves and jackals, who were trying to have the tiger chosen, and they caused it to be shown to the deer and oxen and all the other animals. The lion denied that he had ever written this letter, and said, find find me the creature that did this false thing. The wolves and jackals continued to howl over it, and insisted it was true; but the animals did not believe them and rose the lion for their king, and the wolves and jackals hid themselves in their dens for shame.

A long time afterwards, when the animals had almost forgotten the matter, the squash-bug came before the lion and said, "Oh King! I am now convinced I was mistaken in saying "that you wrote that letter, although "until yesterday I had no reason to "doubt it. I forgive you." What the lion thought no one could tell, because he said nothing; but it is probable he thought, as all other animals did, that it was better not to touch the squash-bug, as the more he is stirred up the worse he smells.

Moral: It is truly magnanimous to confess one's errors, when all the world has found them out.

Hints for the Season.

Precaution against epidemic or contagious illness is never untimely, although the epidemic may be slight and the contagion doubted altogether. There is an element of truth in the extravagant statement of an English official, who declared that one-third of the deaths which occur in England are due to ignorance and indifference, the knowledge of diseases being applied imperfectly, or not at all.

* * * * *

In our cities, the health boards are active in inculcating the simple principles of caution and prompt use of remedies; but in country districts there is a fine field for disease to do its will, because families are slow to believe in the poisonous influences of certain ailments, and very careless about confining these infectious visitations to their own houses. In cities, private funerals for those who die of well-marked attacks of contagious diseases are insisted upon by the proper authorities, and scarlet fever is dealt with as strictly as small-pox. But in villages there is a recklessness almost incredible. The public burial of a diphtheria patient, with rooms crowded by old and young, the deadly atmosphere being breathed by men and women who calmly stood by the open casket, was a spectacle witnessed by the writer not long since.

We read the sad statistics of epidemics in rural communities, and between the lines we must study these wilful and reprehensible exposures. Small-pox frightens any village into propriety and care; isolation is demanded; the people are awake to the danger; but the same person will suffer scarlet fever or diptheria to extend its influence, and then marvel at the providential dispensation which brings so much distress upon the sons of men. No doubt one-third die unnecessarily in these epidemics in country districts. The thorough purification of dwellings, the separation of the sick, the private funeral, are sad features of the case, but better the sacrifice of custom, and the labor and inconvenience of making houses fit for human occupancy, than the fell course of the pestilence. If the circular put forth by health boards could be reproduced and distributed throughout the land, there would be a mitigation of the evils mentioned.

* * * * *

It would be a blessing to the community if one were to collect facts touching the remedies applied to these prevailing diseases by those who set their own judgment above that of any doctor. Take diphtheria for example. What a variety of wrappings, and dosings and besetmente are on record—each sure to prevent the going out of the vital spark! Kerosene and pork and other groceries are impressed into the service. The patient is bound hand and foot with appliances; he is helpless; he can scarcely breathe; his blood is on fire with the poison of the disease; while without the redolent onion vies with other substances in making life a burden to the sufferer.

* * * * *

Rational information, isolation, proper treatment by educated physicians—these are to prevent the unrestricted course of these terrible scourges. Meanwhile these processes, ludicrous if they were not utterly wicked, will go on, and the death record will give its mournful lessons, heeded so little, yet so easily learned.

The Newspaper Press of Great Britain.

In London and the provinces there are something over two thousand newsnewspapers, or one-fourth as many as exist in the United States. The multiplicity of these publications with us has given rise to vainglorious bombast on the subject of our national enlightenment from this source of illumination, and the assumption of superiority over the English in the use of the press is perhaps the commonest vaunting in which our patriotic braggarts indulge. How little substantial foundation there is for it may readily be shown. In the first place the extent of a paper's circulation is the best criterion of its influence, and here the English publishers have a great advantage over the American. In England a daily paper with an edition of 4000 is at the bottom of the list. In this country we have hundreds of them with a circulation below 500. The London Telegraph circulates 250,000 copies daily, or more than twice as many as the most successful paper in this country, while the Standard and the News have each a circulation one-half greater than the N. Y. Herald or Sun enjoys, or six times greater than the Chicago Times or Tribune has. The primary difference between the newspapers of the two countries is that those of England find a much better market. They are published amid a dense population, and as a result of this are not only much more extensively read, but are much better than the papers of the same class in country. There is hardly any comparison between the country press of this country and that of Great Britain, so superior is the latter.

Catching Codfish With Nets.

From the Portsmouth (N. H.) Chronicle.

For many years in the early days of codfishery the only method of taking the fish was by the use of what are now termed the hand-lines, to distinguish them from set lines or trawls. At length trawl-fishing was introduced, to the intense disgust of the hand-liners, who declared that the trawlers would kill off all the fish, or at least thin them out to such an extent as to destroy the fishing business; but the use of trawls became more and more common, until now the hand-line fishing done is but trifling. Recently we were informed that a new method of capturing codfish had been introduced, to wit, the employment of a gill net, with which the trawlers were as much displeased as the hand-liners were with the trawls on their first appearance. This statement we were at first inclined to regard as a "fish story," but we are assured that it is true, and that cod net is described as by no means a costly affair. The cod keeps near the bottom of the sea, and in consequence the net is only made about three fathoms wide; the ordinary seine twine is used. One edge of the net is weighted to keep it on the bottom, the other edge being buoyed by hollow balls of glass; the net is set with anchors at each end, left out over night, the same as a trawl, and hauled in at the first opportunity. We see no reason why this plan should not work well, and no valid objections to its use. The mesh used being large, the small and unmarketable fish) of which thousands upon thousands are killed and thrown away by the trawlers) will not be taken at all, and the expense of procuring bait and the disagreeable and tedious job of baiting trawls are avoided. It is said that this plan is due to a suggestion by Prof. Baird, of the United States Fish Commission.

NO FENCE LAW.—Petitions are being circulated in every township in this county, requesting the General Assembly to enact a no-fence law for New Hanover. If the law is obtained the county fence necessary to separate New Hanover county from Pender county will be only about nine miles in length, extending from a point on Topsail sound across to the Northeast river. This fence will cost, at the estimated rate of $100 to the mile, say $1,000. In every other direction the water ways can be made lawful fences. The friends of this movement are sanguine of its success. It is said that the valuation of cattle in the county does not exceed $25,000, while the cost of keeping up the fences to keep cattle out of the crops exceeds $150,000. The workings of the no-fence law are very simple, and are understood by nearly everybody. Instead of fencing the crops in and the cattle out, the cattle are to be fenced in and the crops out.

Ash Wednesday falls this year on the 2nd of March and Easter on the 17th of April.

Her upper works have been washed away, and there is nothing now left except her hull and machinery. As soon as the freshet subsides an effort will be made to raise the hull and boiler, and on them a new boat will be built.

A CURE FOR SMALL-POX.—We copy the following, as it may be of some service to our readers:—"I am willing to risk my reputation as a public man," wrote Edward Hine to the Liverpool Mercury, "if the worst case of small-pox cannot be cured in three days, simply by the use of cream of tarter. One ounce of cream of tarter dissolved in a pint of water, drank at intervals, when cold, is a certain, never-failing remedy. It has cured thousands, never leaves a mark, never causes blindness, and avoids tedious lingering."

The Postmaster General is urging upon railroad companies the necessity of providing the Railway P. O. Cars with saws, axes, hatchets and safety heaters, in lieu of the stoves now in use, and further says then the occurrence of fires in Railway Postal Cars would be almost absolutely prevented, the railroad property would thereby be preserved, and the probability of the destruction of mails by fire be reduced to the minimum. Recent railway accidents have demonstrated the absolute necessity of placing saws, axes, and a hatchet in each mail car or mail apartment.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—A large audience, consisting of those of our citizens who are interested in the subject of liquor prohibition, assembled at the Opera House last evening to listen to a lecture on the subject of Temperance, to be delivered by Capt. N. F. Thompson at the request of some of our prominent citizens. That gentleman handled his subject to the very best advantage, and made an impression on the minds of his audience, as to the evil effects of intemperance, which will not soon be eradicated.—His remarks were logical, and carried with them conviction and will do much in accomplishing the ends which the friends of prohibition in this city are striving to attain. Captain Thompson is a graceful speaker, and his vocal modulations are those of a finished elocutionist.

It was ordered by the Board that the Committee on Public Buildings be authorized to erect an additional building on the Poor House premises at a price not exceeding $300.

THE CANADIAN PROPHET. As Vennor has made some very correct predictions as to the weather, we give room to the following special predictions which we find in his almanac for 1881: Blockades of snow in the United States about the 7th and 8th; mild spell from January 18th to February 12th; March 9th and 10th, gales probable around New York and Boston, and snow storms. In April a snowfall on the 4th or 5th, but spring will be well advanced by the 15th. In May, after the 10th, hot weather; on the 13th and 15th thunder storms. June, warm till 11th, then cold till 20th; 24th and 26th hot. July, cold on 13th, 20th, 23rd and 31st; hot on 4th, 9th, 11th, 16th, 17th, 25th and 26th. August 4th and 5th will be cold. In September the centre of the month will be its warmest part. October will open cold; November will be muddy, with little frost; December will be the warmest ever known. Let our readers cut this out and verify these predictions.

Nothing illustrates so clearly the thoroughness of the civilization of this nineteenth century as the fact of the scientific development and minutiæ of detail exhibited in all branches of trade and commerce. We have been led to these remarks by an examination of the Seed Annual for 1881—published by D. M. Ferry & Co., the great Seedsmen of Detroit, Mich.—a copy of which is before us. Here is a work, as large if not larger than any of the first-class magazines—issued free to all who apply for it, elegantly illustrated, and containing an amount of information—such as the names, common and botanical, classification, character, height and color of plant, mode of culture and what to avoid, the numerous varieties and their distinctive marks, with general directions for the cultivation and management of a garden, such as could not be obtained from perhaps fifty volumes, few if any of which are within the reach of the ordinary reader, and so condensed and arranged as to be easily understood by all. Surely such enterprise deserves the success which we are happy to know this extensive and liberal house is meeting with. Send to them for a Catalogue before you buy your Seeds.

Peterson's Magazine has some new feature every month, is always progressive and in the advance. The February number is now before us, and its new feature is a colored pattern for embroidery on net, the last "new thing" in art needlework. Every lady ought to have the number, if only to get this new pattern. The stories are unusually fine. There is a spirited tale, Beyond his Reach, illustrated; a weird one, "The Egyptian Amulet;" two novlets, one by Ann S. Stephens, both powerful; a sketch by that inimitable humorist, "Josiah Allen's Wife," and numerous other stories, by Frank Lee Benedict, and others, all original, and all by American writers. The principal embelishment is a steel-plate, "The Lost Babe In The Woods," one of the most charming that we have ever seen. The patterns for fashions, for the work table, etc., etc., are almost countless. It is impossible to conceive how a lady's book could be better. "Peterson," is undoubtedly, as it claims to be, the cheapest and best of its kind. The terms are but two dollars a year, with great reductions to clubs, and beautiful premiums to the person getting up a club. Now is the time to get up clubs. Specimens are sent gratis for this purpose. Address Chas. J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, Pa.

A MINUTE.

Rt. Rev. Thomas Atkinson, D. D. LLD

At an adjourned meeting of the vestry of St. John's Church, Wilmington, called in consequence of the death of the Rt. Rev. Thomas Atkinson, D. D., LLD., and held January 10th, 1881, the following Minute and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

While we see and recognize the will and work of God in the death of our well-beloved Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Thomas Atkinson, and bow with submission to His decree, we cannot but deplore the loss which his death entails upon us, upon this Diocese and upon the whole Church Catholic. For he was a foremost leader of the armies of the Living God; a councillor of wisdom; a Christian of excellent character; a Bishop of truly Apostolic type and spirit. An earnest, logical and forcible preacher, he emphasized by his life what he proclaimed from the sacred desk. Large-minded, generous and just, he was a ruler respected and feared for his justice and impartiality, while he was universally beloved for his gentleness and tenderness of heart. As a wise master-builder he laid foundations deep and broad—because he taught that one foundation "that is laid, which is Jesus Christ," and his work which he has built thereupon shall abide, because he has proved himself "a workman which needeth not to be ashamed." We believe "in the Communion of Saints," and so we know that we have his example to incite us to greater zeal and earnestess in following Christ even as he followed Him; and his prayers which from the place of waiting arise as incense before the throne of God for us who are still struggling amid the distractions and temptations of this naughty world. We rejoice for him that he is at rest in the presence of that Saviour whom he so dearly loved and so greatly delighted to honor; we mourn for ourselves that his living power and example as a man, a Christian, and a chief pastor of the flock of Christ are taken from us. Therefore, as a token and emblem of our sorrow and our sense of loss,

Resolved, That St. John's Church shall be draped with mourning for 30 days.

Resolved, That we extend our tenderest sympathy to his bereaved family, in that he has gone from them who was as distinguished for his domestic grace as he was for his public virtues. We assure them of our heart-felt prayers that God will comfort them in their affliction and in His own good time restore to them that loving husband and father in the land where partings are unknown.

Resolved, That a copy of this Minute and the accompanying resolutions be sent to the family of our departed Bishop, and that they be published in the city papers.

Attest,
WM. H. GREEN,
Secretary pro. tem.

THE WILMINGTON POST.

JOSEPH C. ABBOTT, EDITOR.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING, JAN. 16, 1881.

"A man who will cheat in politics will in private business matters," says Judge O. P. Mears, in Criminal Court. Will Mr. Simon Sanders, the First Ward registrar consider these very just remarks before he again undertakes his dirty work.

It looks now as if General Hawley of Connecticut, Robeson of New Jersey, Conger of Michigan, Hale and Frye of Maine, will go to the Senate, while Garfield goes to the Presidency. There is a great weight of ability and influence lost to the House. Who will be its leader?

They have revived the old story that Horace Greeley habitually sat under the fascinating eloquence of the Rev. Dr. Chapin, where he slept sweetly and snored sonorously, and was waked up by the rustling of the audience, and then to the surprise of everybody could repeat nearly every word of the sermon.

The editor of Truth in which that forgery the Morey letter was printed now addresses a letter to General Garfield, stating that he is in possession of information which convinces him that the letter was a fraud and forgery. This retraction wipes out the last vestige of one of the most infamous frauds and deceptions that was ever concocted for base purposes, by villains.

A new weekly, the Enterprise, edited by E. E. Smith, and devoted to the advancement of the colored people, as it says, appears in Goldsboro, "Vol. 1, No. 1," and says:—"It is the mission of the Enterprise to inculcate true principles of man and womanhood, to build up the young, to cheer and strengthen those of a more mature age, who are struggling manfully with the stern duties of active and responsible life; to work for the more successful education and improvement of the hundreds of youths who are now so sadly neglected, and to awaken a more general interest in the many who seem to have little or no inclination to properly train and educate."

The nomination of Gen. Goff, of West Virginia, to the Secretaryship of the Navy caused general surprise, except to a few who knew of the President's intention to make it. When the nomination was presented to the Senate Gen. Goff was at the Capitol in the room of the Senate committee on appropriations. He was a native of West Virginia, residing at Clarksburg, and about forty years of age. He was Colonel of the Third Virginia regiment in the Union army and rose to the rank of Brigadier General. During the war he earned the reputation of a gallant and able commander. He has been United States District Attorney of West Virginia for twelve years. Four years ago he was the Republican nominee for Governor, and it is said ran ahead of his ticket considerably, but was of course beaten by the Democratic nominee, Gov. Matthews.

General, now Senator, Mahone of Virginia, and his most judicious supporters, have claimed from the beginning that the Readjusters were as much entitled to credit in the management of the public debt, as the Funders. The state of Virginia is bankrupt, and whichever party is in power has the same assetts. The promise of one is no better than the other. Senator Mahone is out in a new manifesto to the effect that the Funder government have already put themselves in a false position by not doing as they promised. Having been repudiators themselves they have no business to charge him and his followers with repudiation. We have always thought there was logic in Mahone's argument.

The mouths of the ex-kuklux newspapers, which spent nearly two years defending or apologising for flagrant murders, are now rolling a sweet morsel under their tongues, consisting of a pamphlet written by somefellow named "Royall," the purpose of which is to show that "A Fool's Errand" is a string of falsehoods, and that Judge Tourgee, a lawyer, the author of "A Fool's Errand," had some money transaction with Geo. W. Swepson. Anybody who has brains enough to know anything, and has given the slightest attention to the events related in Tourgee's book, knows that the facts there stated are as much history as the battle of Guilford Court House, or Kings Mountain, or Yorktown, where Lord Cornwallis surrendered to Washington, and where to celebrate this very year a Centennial anniversary. If Royall, the author of this pamphlet, is not an idiot, he is a liar, if he denies the facts related in "A Fool's Errand." Does this fellow, Royall, want to see a list of the lawyers of North Carolina who were retained by Swepson? Has he not brains enough to know that whatever the facts of any lawyers transaction were with Swepson does not change any fact connected with the battle of Guilford Court House or the murder of Stephens or the hanging of Outlaw in the town of Graham

GOV. JARVIS' MESSAGE.

Delivered January 5, 1881, in the Capitol in Raleigh.

By reference to the Auditor's and Treasurer's reports, you will see that the total receipts for the fiscal year ending September 30th, 1880, were:

- - - - - - - - - - $546,996 04
Total disbursements - - 492,720 03

Balance in favor of receipts $54,276 71

If all the expenses incurred in the quarter ending September 30th had been paid in that quarter, the balance in hand would not have been so great. It is likely, however, that as great an amount will not be paid in the quarter ending September 30th, 1881, so that this need not altar any estimate. The persistent effort of Dr. Worth for ten years to get our state debt adjusted has had its reward. Under the act to compromise and commute the state debt, passed at the session of 1879, he has taken up the old bonds of the state to January 1st, 1881, as follows:

Forty per cent. class - - - $3,579,500
Twenty-five per cent. class - 1,962,045
Fifteen per cent. class - - 1,928,700

Total - - - - - - - - $7,470,245

He has issued in lieu of these new four per cent. bonds of the state, to the amount of $2,211,816, upon which the interest was promptly paid on the 1st day of January. The old bonds taken up were recorded as required by law, and burned in my presence.

The Governor recommends the building of a "Supreme Court Building" on Nash Square; the selling of the old Governor's mansion and the building of a new one; education; the University; the State Board of Education, and we copy the recommendations without comment:

This board has in the hands of Treasurer Worth $91,500 in United States four per cent. bonds, derived from investments of fines, forfeitures and penalties, and the entries of vacant lands. The law required, and still requires, these investments to be made in United States bonds. These bonds are now worth one hundred and twelve cents in the dollar; so the $91,500 will bring $102,480. This fund, invested in the new four per cent. state bonds, which are worth, say, ninety cents in the dollar, will bring about $114,000, upon which the same rate of interest will be paid. I ask you to authorize the board to make this change in the investment, and I suggest that all laws requiring investments or deposits to be made in United States bonds be changed so as to permit such investments or deposits to be made in the new state four per cent. bonds.

Swamp lands; Charitable and Penal Institutions; Penitentiary; the Insane Asylum; the Colored Asylum; the Deaf and Dumb Asylum; the Department of Agriculture; the Supreme Court; the Superior Court; the codification of the law; the pardoning power; the Swepson case; the Littlefield case; the Perry case; the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroads; the Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal Company; the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad; the Western North Carolina Railroad he handles like a piece of hot iron; construction bonds, likewise; Centennials; Cowpens, Guilford Court House, Yorktown; Druggists, Prohibition, militia, Oxford Asylum for orphans; and then stops.

This formidable document makes ten columns in the News and Observer, and we abstain from comments on what seems to be rather an evasive and stale state paper. It is as disjected as one of his campaign speeches, and as flat as the average literary collection of vapidness that was scraped together from kuklux dens, and called a legislature, and that was the legitimate offspring of that night-gown chivalry. It is suggestive of deodorizers, sewerage, and such appliances of ducts of thick odorousness, as is seen after an average Democratic crossroads meeting. We have filed it carefully away as we would yellow covered novels.

"BOYCOTTING."

In the reports of the tumults in Ireland, "Boycotting" frequently appears as something objectionable. The Norfolk Day Book, in answer as to what "boycotting" really is, says that the class known as poor whites "need hardly ask." "Boycotting," it continues, "is a regular systematic plan of persecuting, ostracising, tabooing or isolating a man, to force him to abandon his views, even to the committing of himself to misprism treason against his government and its laws," [The Day Book probably means "misprision of treason," as the old law books say.] "The Ring that seeks to force him into their measures, refuses him the ordinary treatment extended to brutes in Ireland. They will sell him nothing, buy nothing of him, refuse any necessaries or comforts of life to him or his family, will not speak to him or help him or his family, be they sick or well, in any way, and will treat anyone else who dares to recognize or help him, in the same way. They isolate him completely. It is the concentrated essence of the Star Chamber Inquisition, and the man who is "boycotted" is made to suffer the torments of hell while on earth among his fellow-men. It is a mistake to charge that it is not against the law."

"Boycotting, as the Irish call it, is coercion as it has been practised here in Virginia, commencing during the quarrel before the war, when all submissionists, as they were called, were 'boycotted' or coerced into abandoning their allegiance to the United States government and forced to go into the mad scheme of secession, which resulted so damagingly to the people of Virginia."

As nearly as we can make out the Day Book is in favor of our government punishing the "boycotting" in America as Mr. Gladstone is doing with it in Ireland. They do not seem to be very different from our kuklux of 1770, here in North Carolina, or the red-shirts, shot-guns and bowie-knives of South Carolina, or the bull-dozers of Louisiana and the throat-cutters of Mississippi. They all come under the general nomenclature of "assassins," "thugs," "plug-uglies," &c., all over the world, where they are found. It is not to be wondered that the Pope of Rome is opposed to them, and that the government of Great Britain, should call out their armies to make them behave themselves. And it would be a very appropriate proceeding if the government of the United States, were to adopt the motto of Mr. Gladstone, the Premier, "Peace as preliminary to leniency." Crime and pacification have no natural affinity. Hamburg and Coushatta, while they are fixing their shot-guns loaded with buck-shot, are not in a condition to ask for leniency.

Mr. Simon Sanders was one of the chief men who defrauded the colored men out of their votes on election day, 2d November, 1880. Will those of them who live in Brooklyn recollect this for the business prosperity of Mr. Sanders.

VIRGINIA MIDLAND EXTENSION.

The Winston Republican says:—"We are now assured, by those in a position to know, that the sale of the Virginia Midland Railroad having been confirmed, and all matters in dispute adjusted, the reorganization of that company will be speedily effected. There appears to be no doubt that Col. Barbour, who has been acting, will be elected President. Our particular interest in this matter rests in the further fact, of which we have been repeatedly assured, that as soon as Col. Barbour could get his hands loose, he would extend the line into North Carolina, and to Winston, with a vigor and energy which will be surprising."

ALBEMARLE.

The people of Elizabeth City and the country between that and Norfolk are confident that that the locomotive will blow its whistle in the solitudes of Dismal Swamp as soon as February.

The "Albemarle Immigration Society," Judge C. C. Pool, chairman, held a meeting at Elizabeth City, and are not only going to people the Albemarle, but, as they say, "the whole o North Carolina."

A negro man with two goat's horns growing out of his head, has arrived at Alexandria. He was born in the Albermarle.

There has been snow in Camden.

Old James Johnson 101 years old, colored, formerly the head slave of James C. Johnson, died at Johnson's Quarters.

The corporation of Elizabeth City have voted to issue $20,000 bonds for the benefit of the Elizabeth City and Norfolk Railroad Company.

Capt. W. D. Tate of Kitty Hawk, just married, on his return from Currituck, C. H., was capsized in his sail boat, climbed on the bottom and froze, and was found "stiff in the arms of death." Rum did it.

Hon. C. W. Grandy will contest.

North Carolina Bonds.

The course of North Carolina bonds on the market has been as follows:

The North Carolina 4 per cent, consolidation bonds were put on the market in July, 1880, and were quoted at 60 cents; August, 75; September, 75; October, 77; November, 78½; December, 82. These are now quoted at 84.

The construction bonds, North Carolina Railroad, with coupons, were: January, 1879, 87; February, 100; April, 106; August, 109; December, 111. They are now quoted at 115. With coupons off the quotations were: January, 1879, 78; March, 80; July, 88; December, 92, and they have stood at that figure ever since, being quoted now at 90.

North Carolina 6's, old, were quoted at 26 in January, 1880; March, at 29; August, 30; December, 32, and they are now quoted at 32½. In like manner the bonds issued since the war have advanced from 15 in January, 1880, to 21, the present quotation, and special tax bonds that were quoted at 2 cents in July are now held at 7.

The hotel boy had been instructed, when he knocked at Dean Stanley's door and heard the inquiry, "What's there?" to reply, "The boy, my lord." The boy answered the first call with considerable trepidation, and surprised the Dean by a loud response to his question, "The lord, my boy."

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, Jan. 11, 1881.

Mr. Parish, Senator-elect from Orange, was introduced by Mr. Cunningham, and duly qualified.

CALENDAR.

Resolution to pay the clerks of the board of state canvassers. Passed.

Resolution to investigate the treatment of convicts. When the resolution was read, Mr. Davidson said that so far as the reports of any bad treatment of convicts on the Western North Carolina road were concerned, he had no belief in them. He had visited and inspected the quarters of the convicts, and had seen the convicts in their quarters and at work, and he knew such reports were untrue. That the Republican party seemed to have taken on itself the special guardianship of the convicts. This matter had already been investigated, and he was opposed to wasting time and money in further fruitless investigations. He had read, as part of his remarks, a paragraph from the Asheville News, the Republican organ of the west, stating that the convicts on that road were well cared for and well treated.

Scott of New Hanover, said that his county was very well represented on the public works of the state. That some of its representatives had returned and some had not. That of those who had returned, some were physical wrecks and were a charge on the county in the poor house. He thought the convicts ought to be worked, but they ought to be so treated that their health would be preserved.

Richardson moved that the matter be referred to the committee on penal institutions.

Stowe favored the reference. He thought this a grave question and one which should be well considered. It was better for the people and the convicts that the convict labor should be utilized, and that the people should not be taxed to support criminals in idleness, but unless the convicts employed on public works were well and humanely treated, it would be better to support them in the penitentiary.

Williamson of Edgecombe, said that from Mr. Davidson's statement he was satisfied that the convicts on the Western road were properly managed, but from information he had received he was satisfied some of the other roads did need investigation. That the Republicans were not the guardians of the convicts, but when the law was such that for theft of a chicken a man could be sent to the penitentiary for five years, all humane people were called on to see that he was treated properly.

At this point, the hour of 12 having arrived, the Senate proceeded to the House to count the vote for state officers.

At 2 p. m. the Senate returned to its own chamber, and on motion adjourned.

A Good Thing.

Mr. Nordhoff, the Washington correspondent, says: "The Mahone movement is an independent movement, whose main purpose is to cause the mischievous color line to disappear from Virginia, and to put the politics of the state on a basis where both parties shall contain a fair share of the honorable and influential men of the state. If the Bourbons should succeed in driving Mahone over to the Republican party, the only result would be to make Virginia permanently Republican. It would be a good thing for South Carolina," says Nordhoff, "if some such man as Mahone should head an independent party there."

Every man who was denied the right to vote, should report his name and address to Col. O. H. Blocker, Wilmington, N. C.

If you know of any Democrat who voted, but was not entitled to do so send his name and the name of the poll-holders, to Col. O. H. Blocker, Wilmington, N. C.

The Ice Bridge at Montreal.

[From the Montreal Witness, Dec. 31.]

The ice bridge has formed, and this morning seemed strong enough for any weight. The packing of the ice has given a thickness in some places of 7 or 8 feet, but the average thickness may be set down at 2 feet 6 inches, though the roadways will be much thicker than that. The method of road making is very simple, and in frosty weather is very easy. The track having been marked with small bushes, the rough surface is hewn down and ice broken into fragments. Upon these are poured pails of water, so that but a few seconds suffice to give the sleighs a solid road bed, frozen as hard as the foundation. City Surveyor Ansley has taken steps to have the work commenced to-morrow. There will be two roads to Longueil, one rounding the corner of Ile Ronde and the other passing the eastern end of St. Helen's Island. The city pays half the cost of maintaining the lower road, while it constructs and maintains one-half of the upper road. The Laprairie road, which passes beneath the piers of Victoria Bridge, is located and constructed by the Laprairie authorities, the city of Montreal paying one-half the cost. The St. Lambert road is constructed and maintained jointly by the city and St. Lambert, each paying one-half the maintenance. The ice road of the ice bridge railway is a much more difficult and expensive affair. Workmen began yesterday to prepare the ice for laying down the railway track between Hochelaga and Longueil. The first work is to thoroughly level the surface, and for this purpose gangs of men are busy to-day with axes, scrapers, and rollers, removing every inequality which may interfere with the perfect level resting of the timbers. The company do not intend to lay down the track itself before Monday, in order that the ice may attain ample thickness to insure safety. This once guaranteed a few hours will do the rest.

A curious insight into southern politics is furnished by the card of a Democratic candidate for deputy sheriff in Atlanta. He announces that a rival candidate is endeavoring to "defeat me by inventing and circulating the report that I first came here as a 'Yankee soldier' in Sherman's army," and adds: "I pronounce his statement a malicious slander. I never served in the Federal army." This frank avowal is reproduced without comment by the Tribune, which ventures to hope that such reproduction will not be construed as a needless revival of the "unpleasant spirit of sectionalism."—Exchange.

Just About It.

Representative A. H. Stephens, of Georgia, tells a reporter of the Atlanta Constitution that it is all a mistake to the prevailing opinion that the south does not want northern men to settle within its borders. He says: "We want northern men—we want Yankees—we welcome all honest, thrifty citizens." Mr. Stephens's assurances are gratifying in the abstract. But the weight of testimony of northerners who have tried the southern welcome is in favor of "going west," or staying at home.—Syracuse Journal.

45 Years Before the Public.

THE GENUINE

DR. C. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

AN IMPORTANT CIRCULAR.

Method of Calling the Next Republican National Convention.

The following circular was issued by the Republican National Committee on October 8, 1880:

By Rule 10 of the Convention of June, 1880, it is provided that the Republican National Committee "shall, within the next twelve months, prescribe methods or rules for the selection of delegates to the National Convention to be held in 1884, announce the same to the country, and issue a call for that convention in conformity therewith, provided that such methods or rules shall include and secure to the several congressional districts in the United States the right to elect their own delegates to the National Convention." Preliminary to carrying into effect the foregoing rule, the National Committee, on July 1, 1880, adopted the following:

Resolved, That in order to aid this committee in carrying out the instructions of the National Convention, to prescribe and announce within one year, the methods or rules for electing delegates to the next National Convention, request is hereby made for the transmission to the committee of plans and suggestions on the subject from any person, prior to October 15, 1880.

At a subsequent meeting the time for such transmission was extended to February 1, 1881, and it was also voted that a full meeting of the committee should be called to consider the subject some time in March, 1881.

Request is hereby made of the Republicans to whom this circular is sent, and of all others, to forward any plans or suggestions they may desire to make to the officers of the committee, before February 1, 1881.

MARSHALL JEWELL, Chairman,
S. W. DORSEY, Secretary,
GEO. W. HOOKER, Assistant Secretary.

The following plans had been previously submitted at the meeting of July 1, 1880:

PLAN OF MR. WILLIAM E. CHANDLER, OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

The Republican National Convention of 1884 shall consist of four delegates at large from each state and two delegates from each congressional district, all to be chosen at popular conventions in such manner as the Republicans of each state may determine; provided the delegates from each congressional district shall be the choice of the Republicans of that district. The conventions within the states for the election of delegates to the National Convention shall be held at least one month before the time for the meeting of the National Convention. Notices of contests may be given to the National Committee, accompanied by full printed statements of the grounds of contest, which shall also be made public, and preference in the order of hearing and determining contests shall be given by the convention according to the dates of the reception of such notices and statements by the National Committee.

PLAN OF MR. JOHN A. MARTIN, OF KANSAS.

That the Republican National Convention for 1884 shall be composed as follows: First. Each state shall be entitled to four delegates at large. Second. Each Congressional district shall be entitled to one delegate. Third. In addition to delegates at large, each state shall be entitled to representation in proportion to its Republican vote; that is, one delegate for every 12,000 Republican votes polled for President in 1880, or fraction of over one-half that number.

The meeting of the National Committee has been called at Washington, March 5th, 1880, and Messrs. William E. Chandler, Edward McPherson, and George C. Gorham have been designated as a committee to receive all suggestions that may be made and to prepare and submit a plan at that meeting. The renewed attention of all Republicans is called to this important question, and they are requested to communicate their views at any time before March 1. Editors of Republican papers are requested to publish the circular and plans and to discuss the subject editorially.

Communications may be addressed to either of the Committee at Washington, D. C. t m 5.

A PAYING OCCUPATION.

The approach of the long winter evenings calls attention to the matter of a lamp, for without a good light half the pleasure or profit is taken from reading or study. Coal oil is now in general use for illuminating purposes outside of cities or large towns where coal gas is used, and when a proper lamp is used it is the best substitute for sunlight yet discovered. The principle or plan upon which the Student Lamp is constructed may be said to be the best in use, but the lamp itself has always had several objectionable features which we are glad to see are being done away with in the new aspirant for favor called the "HOME LAMP," manufactured by the Home Lamp Co. of Cincinnati. The great objection to most other lamps is their liability to be upset, the trouble to keep them in order, and the poor light given by them. The New Home Lamp is Nickel Plated, and almost a fac-similie of the Student Lamp; it has a handsome ornamented clamp by means of which the lamp can be at once easily adjusted in any position upon the center table, piano, music rest, sewing machine, desk, or by means of a handsome bracket, which goes with the lamp, can be placed upon the wall, and in whatever position it is placed it is absolutely safe. This is the great feature of excellence, but the New Home Lamp combines also the patent argand burner, a filling indicator and match box. No lamp has ever before been received with such universal favor or received such strong recommendations from the leading journals of Cincinnati. It is also endorsed by such men as the mayor and postmaster, several insurance presidents and express agents of that city as the safest, most convenient and best lamp made. The Company desires agents in this locality, and any smart lady or gentleman can make a handsome income during the next six months by canvassing for its sale. There is hardly a dozen families in this county who will not want one, and its price is so low as to bring it within the reach of all. For further information address, Home Lamp Co., Cincinnati, O., mentioning our paper and they will give you full particulars pan exclusive territory to canvass in.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR Diseases of the Throat and Lungs

Diseases of the pulmonary organs are so prevalent and fatal, that a safe and reliable remedy for them is invaluable to every community. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is such a remedy, and no other so eminently merits the confidence of the public. It is a scientific combination of the medicinal principles and curative virtues of the finest drugs, chemically united, to insure the greatest possible efficiency and uniformity of results, which enables physicians as well as invalids to use it with confidence. It is the most reliable remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs that science has produced. It strikes at the foundation of all pulmonary diseases, affording prompt and certain relief, and is adapted to patients of any age or either sex. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it without difficulty. In the treatment of ordinary Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Influenza, Clergyman's Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, and Catarrh, the effects of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL are magical, and multitudes are annually preserved from serious illness by its timely and faithful use. It should be kept at hand in every household, for the protection it affords in sudden attacks. In Whooping-cough and Consumption there is no other remedy so efficacious, soothing, and helpful.

The marvellous cures which AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has effected all over the world are a sufficient guaranty that it will continue to produce the best results. An impartial trial will convince the most sceptical of its wonderful curative powers, as well as of its superiority over all other preparations for pulmonary complaints.

Eminent physicians in all parts of the country, knowing its composition, recommend AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL to invalids, and prescribe it in their practice. The test of half a century has proved its absolute certainty to cure all pulmonary complaints not already beyond the reach of human aid.

JEWELRY

$75.00 worth for $15.00

—AND A—

Solid Abyssinian Gold Watch

FREE!

The above offer is genuine, although at first sight you would consider it impossible. We will explain: Since we first established our business here, March 1st, 1875, we have paid particular attention to the buying of Bankrupt and Assignee Sale of Jewelry and Watches, often buying at as low tenth their value, and in no instan we paid over one-sixth the manufac price. Since starting we have always able to dispose of these goods and through our regular customers throu out the country at nearly regular prices fast as we could procure them, but owing the large number of failures among t heaviest dealers and manufacturers thro out this and other countries during t months of June, July and August (the t when the Jewelry business is stagnant), w have now on hand an immense stock of thi most desirable goods we have ever handled and which we have bought at lower prices than ever before. In order to dispose of this entire stock in the most speedy manner possible, and make room for new ones which we shall continue to buy, we have hit upon the following novel plan:

We propose to give you a list of the most desirable of these goods, giving opposite each article its regular retail value, and sell to you at the rate of Five Dollars' worth for $1.00. For instance, on receipt of 10 cts. we will send you, POSTPAID, any article in the value of $2.50, on receipt of $1.00 articles to the value of $5.00, and so on throughout the entire list. Below we give a list of the most valuable of these goods.

The American Stockman, Sept. 11th, says: "We believe this institution perfectly sound and responsible, and consequently patrons need have no hesitation about sending for what they desire."
